Fire and Life Insurance AgentsHow Servants Caps Should Be Made.

The sweeping cap is made of gingham and it is not beautiful. It is circular in shape and entirely covers the hair of the wearer. It is purely utilitarian. It is made of material heavy enough to prevent the dust from filtering through.

The waitress' cap may be either square or triangular. In either case a point lies directly above the middle of the forehead of the wearer.

The nurses' caps are round, not unlike the sweepers' in shape. They make up for their simplicity of form by their elaborate material.

How to Make Deviled Sardines.

Take some good sized sardines and remove the skin and bones, pound them in a mortar, with a little butter or oil, some chopped parsley and tarragon leaves, a half pound of cloves, a blade of mace and a few chives. Season plentifully with cayenne and a little salt and serve either on hot fried toast or in tiny molds previously lined with a layer of fried bread crumbs sprinkled with warm butter. Fresh oysters are delicious deviled in the same way.

How to Clean Lamp Wicks.

When lamp wicks become hard, work badly and emit an offensive odor, boil them in strong soap suds, rinse and wipe dry.

When you wish to extinguish a light, turn it down quite low; then with a light breath from the top of the chimney put it out. Thus you will avoid danger and a disagreeable odor.

How to Select Shades of Green.

This color never should be chosen without being seen by artificial light. Pale olive and other shades of green are much used for wall papers, furniture stuff and draperies, but some of the colors that are beautiful in the sunlight are a gloomy brown shade at night.

How to Wash Oilcloth.

After washing oilcloth and linoleum be sure to dry it properly. If left damp, it will speedily rot and finally become totally spoiled. It is a great mistake to use too much water for washing it. The cloth should be wrung out and passed over the surface.

He Knew What He Was About.

Among the stories told to the deserved credit of such lawyers as have no scruples against distorting and concealing the truth in order to shield persons whom they know or have every reason to believe to be guilty the following is entitled to a good place:

An attorney had occasion to defend a man who was justly accused of counterfeiting paper money, and he manipulated the case with such skill that he secured the acquittal of the prisoner. When the lawyer and his client were alone together again, the counterfeiter overwhelmed the lawyer with thanks.

"And now," said he, putting his hand in his pocket.

"And now," the lawyer took up the sentence, "I will have my fee, and I will take it in hard currency, not in bills, if you please."—Youth's Companion.

Company the Cause.

Jones—Well, Bridget, why are you leaving? Can't you and your mistress agree?

Bridget (sorrowfully)—Ah, yis, indeed, soir, but Oi can't bear the policeman on this bairn.—Up to Date

Reasons Why.

There are two reasons why people are now paying car fare all the way from Waikiki to the Islands where the celebrated Salvation Army tea is sold. Reason

1. It is the only place on the Islands where the celebrated Salvation Army tea is sold. Reason

2. After paying car fare both ways patrons find they are money in pocket by dealing at this "live and let live" establishment. We also deliver goods between Diamond Head and Moanalua free.
